III: INTRODUCTORY STATEMENT OF FACTS

1. A widespread or systematic attack was committed against the civilian population in East Timor in 1999. The attack occurred during two interconnected periods of intensified violence. The first period followed the announcement on 27 January 1999 by the Government of Indonesia that the people of East Timor would be allowed to choose between autonomy within the Republic of Indonesia or independence. This period ended on 4 September 1999, the date of the announcement of the result of the popular consultation in which 78.5 per cent voted against the autonomy proposal. The second period followed the announcement of the result of the popular consultation on 4 September through 25 October 1999.
2. The widespread or systematic attack was part of an orchestrated campaign of violence, that included among other things, incitement, threats to life, intimidation, unlawful confinement, assault, forced displacement, arsons, murders, rapes, torture and other forms of violence carried out by members of the pro-autonomy militia, members of the Indonesian Armed Forces, ABRI (Angkatan Bersenjata Republik Indonesia) renamed TNI (Tentara Nasional Indonesia) in 1999 and members of the Indonesian Police Forces POLRI (Kepolisian Republik Indonesia) with the acquiescence and active participation of civilian and military authorities.
3. With the backing of the TNI and the Civil Administration, more than twenty five militia groups operated throughout East Timor. Their goal was to support autonomy with Indonesia. The Integration Fighting Forces, PPI (Pamukan Pejuang Indonesia) under the command of Joao Tavares and Eurico Guterres was the umbrella organization under which these militia groups were organized. With the acquiescence of TNI and the Civil Administration, PPI commanders issued and called upon and incited militia groups and their members to intimidate independence supporters and those perceived to support them. The militia groups participated widespread or systematic attacks, acting and operating with impunity.

4. The widespread or systematic attack was directed against civilians and predominantly against individuals who supported or were perceived to support independence and resulted in lethal injury including death by sharp force injury, gun shot injury, blunt force trauma or a combination of the three.
5. As part of the widespread or systematic attack against the civilian population, the militia destroyed property including houses and livestock belonging to the civilian population.
6. The widespread or systematic attacks resulted in the internal displacement of thousands of persons. Additionally, the forcible transfer of the civilian population within East Timor and deportation to West Timor, Indonesia, was an essential feature of the orchestrated campaign of violence.
7. Under the terms of the 5 May 1999 Agreements, between the Indonesia, Portugal and the United Nations on the popular consultation, the Indonesian security authorities (TNI and POLRI) had the responsibility to ensure a safe environment devoid of violence or other forms of intimidation as well as the general maintenance of law and order before and during the popular consultation. The TNI and POLRI failed to meet these obligations.
8. The Indonesian Military in East Timor consisted of both regular territorial forces and Special Combat Forces ie the Strategic Reserve Command (KOSTRAD) (Kommando Strategis Angkatan Darat) and Special Forces Command (KOPASUS) (Kommando Pasukan Khusus) all of which had units, staff officers and soldiers stationed in East Timor.
9. From February 1999 to October 1999, the Indonesian Police Force (POLRI) the state agency for upholding law and public order were also present in East Timor. It included a Mobile Police Brigade BRIMOB, (Brigade Mobil) whose units and members were stationed in East Timor, including in Dili district.

IV: SPECIFIC STATEMENT OF FACTS

10. Between April and September 1999 the Aitarak militia and the TNI in Hera worked closely together and engaged in a campaign of violence including intimidation, assault, destruction, murder and deportation.

11. Rudolfo Alves Correia was an East Timorese TNI soldier based in Hera during 1999.
12. On 6 September 1999 a number of villagers including Paul Pinto, Domingos Nu Nu Alves and Domingos de Jesus Alves returned to Hera from the mountains where they had been hiding from the militia and TNI. They had returned to try and find food to bring back to their families in the mountains.
13. Whilst the three men were at the home of Paul Pinto, a number of TNI soldiers including Rudolfo Alves Correia (aka Adolfo) and Antonio Pinto (aka Antonio B or 'Mautersa') arrived and arrested them. The TNI soldiers asked them why they had been hiding in the mountains and accused them of assisting FALINTIL. The TNI soldiers including Rudolfo Alves Correia and Antonio Pinto then began to assault Paul Pinto, Domingos Nu Nu Alves and Domingos de Jesus Alves in the face and stomach.
14. The men were forced to walk to the main road and towards the Hera Polytechnic. Once the men reached the main road Rudolfo Alves Correia questioned Domingos Nu Nu Alves about his whereabouts the previous evening. When Domingos Nu Nu Alves replied that he had gone to the mountains and then returned home, Rudolfo Alves Correia accused him of lying and told Antonio Pinto to shoot Domingos Nu Nu Alves. Antonio Pinto shot Domingos Nu Nu Alves killing him.
15. Paul Pinto ran from the TNI soldiers who began shooting after him. Domingos de Jesus Alves also managed to escape from the TNI.
16. Domingos Nu Nu Alves' family later returned to recover and bury his body.

V: GENERAL ALLEGATIONS

17. The acts or omissions by the accused, described in this indictment, were undertaken as part of a widespread or systematic attack directed against the civilian population, with knowledge of the attack, and especially targeting those who were believed to be linked to or sympathetic with the independence cause in East Timor.

VI. CRIMINAL RESPONSIBILITY

(a) Individual Criminal Responsibility

18. The accused Rudolfo Alves Correia (aka Adolfo) is charged with individual criminal responsibility in this indictment. An accused is responsible under Section 14 UNTAET Regulation 2000/15 if he:
