Constitution
Premed Perspective

Article I - Title
From here forth, the organization shall be addressed as Premed Perspective.

Article II – Purpose
In providing a free monthly newsletter to the pre-medical population on campus, our organization serves to offer resources and information on a myriad of issues pertinent to the success of pre-medical students. Working in conjunction with the various pre-medical organizations, the newsletter will disseminate and post events held by these organizations. In addition, the newsletter will include professor, physician and medical student profiles interviewed by the staff. Each month, a community service or volunteer organization will be highlighted in the newsletter.

Article III – Membership
All students are eligible to join the organization and there are no requirements or restrictions on membership.

Only currently registered students, faculty and staff may be active members in a registered student organization. Only active members may vote or hold office.

We will not haze according to California State Law; we will not restrict membership based upon race, color, national origin, religion, sex, physical and mental disability, medical condition (cancer-related or genetic characteristics), ancestry, marital status, age, sexual orientation, citizenship or status as a covered veteran (special disabled veteran, Vietnam-era veteran or any other veteran who served on active duty during a war or in a campaign or expedition for which a campaign badge has been authorized).

Article IV – Officers/Elections
The leadership structure will be as follows:
1. Editor-in-Chief
2. Business/Financial Coordinator
3. Public Relations Coordinator
4. Staff Writers

Officers will be selected by the editor-in-chief, the business/financial coordinator, and the public relations coordinator. The above-mentioned officers will make the selection of officers and staff writers once per calendar year. Officers’ terms will last one calendar year. The editor-in-chief will be the primary signatory and contact person. Officers will be removed or replaced by the editor-in-chief.

Article V – Meetings
Premed Perspective will meet at least once a month and the editor-in-chief will call upon other meetings when necessary. The presence of the editor-in-chief, the business/financial coordinator, and the public relations coordinator will be considered a quorum. The editor-in-chief will call special emergency meetings when necessary.

Article VI – Constitutional Amendments
All members of Premed Perspective can propose amendments. There is no definite time period required between the proposed amendment and a final vote. To carry an amendment, more than 50% of the votes are required.

All amendments, additions or deletions must be filed with the Office of Student Life, 102 Sproul Hall.

Article VII – Dissolution

Dissolution will be decided by the editor-in-chief. All unspent funds will be transferred and distributed to various pre-medical organizations.

All points not covered in the constitution, refer to the Robert’s Rules of Order.
